

JoAn Majors

JoAn Majors is a professional speaker. She is a member of the National Speakers Association and the Global Speakers Network, a two-time business founder and a three-time author. JoAn's newest book, EncourageMentors: 16 Attitude Steps to Building Your Business, Family and Future is available for orders now. Often referred to as a "team member who's temporarily left the office," she brings systems for encouragement, achievement and results oriented communication to the workplace and home.

Her highly sought-after presentations are known for their authenticity, humor and engagement. Mentored by entrepreneurial giants and leading educators in the dental industry, her area of specialty is in working with teams from traditional industries---like banking, real estate, health care, education and her favorite, dentistry---to produce non-traditional transformation with profitable people skills. She's serious about her seminars and crazy about her clients.

Married to a practicing dentist, JoAn and her family reside in Texas.
